Sports Soccer

Generosity Pride

The Peace College soccer team closed out a challenging season with solid signs for continued success. The Pacer soccer team's sophomore offensive leader Harlonda Smith earned a deserving spot on the USA South All-Conference Second Team. Smith scored nine of the Pacers' 18 goals for the season and led the team with three assists. Sophomore midfielder Haley Bright added five goals and three assists for her squad. Bright was named to the first-ever All-Sportsmanship Soccer Team sponsored by the USA South Student-Athlete Advisory Council. The Pacers finished the season 3-1-1-2 (1-7-1 USA South), losing out in a coin toss to Mary Baldwin College for the program's first chance at conference tournament competition. Fortunately, the Pacers lose no players to graduation. With a solid recruiting class from Coach McEleney, this returning squad hopes to earn that tournament spot outright in 2008.

Sports Cross Country . . .

The Cross Country team, junior Ashley Simms and first-year Amando Etheridge, devoted their time and energy this fall and improved individual times during the 2007 campaign. Junior Ashley Simms continued her trend of USA South honors earning the All-Sportsmanship award for Peace. Etheridge completed her season running solo in the USA Conference Meet held annually at Hagen-Stone Park in Greensboro. Simms cheered from the sidelines as she was injured in the final regular season meet.

Basketball . . .

The Pacer Basketball team finished in tenth place among USA South members, omitting them from this year's closing conference tournament. In spite of the record, Peace shows promise of success in the near future. Graduating no seniors, Head Coach Kelly Johnson likely returns all thirteen players, including two who did not finish the season due to injury. As the current Pacers regain confidence in the off-season while Johnson recruits a solid class for the 2009 season, Peace will once again challenge opponents on the court.

Insight Character

Sophomore LeAnne Horne and junior Christy Freemon led the Pacers offense scoring 9.6 and 9.4 PPG, respectively. Horne recorded a team-high 50 steals during the season, and Freemon led all with 69 assists. Juniors Lauren Seeger led the Pacers averaging 6.1 boards per game. Seeger also blocked thirteen shots on the season. Junior Amanda Cross was named to the USA South's first-ever All-Sportsmanship Team in basketball at the close of the season.

Sports Volleyball . . .

Credible Dedication

The ninth ranked Pacer Volleyball team received an automatic bid in the conference tournament last month. Peace finished the season early losing in the first round to the Avenging Angels of Meredith College. The rivals split during the regular season. Senior setter Bridget Corbitt was named to the conference All-Sportsmanship Volleyball Team. She and senior setter Erin Pike led the Pacers this season with a combined 967 assists. Corbitt recorded 240 digs on the year and led her team with 33 aces. Coach Lineberger loses two seniors this season in addition to Corbitt and Pike; libero Stephanie Sports and right side Kenni Seagroves. While the team will miss this group's leadership and talent, the returners bring solid experience to the 2008 season.

The Pacer Softball team enjoyed the most successful finish in school history this season with twenty-seven wins. The team finished fifth in regular season competition (11-7) and Stansbury was named to the All-Conference First-Team as a utility player spending half her time in the circle and half as designated hitter. First-year Margan Weathington earned the Softball All-Sportsmanship honor for Peace. The Pacers won two of four games in the USA South Conference Tournament in Burlington, North Carolina knocking off the number-one seed in game three. First-year third baseman Courtney Long earned the Pacers first-ever USA South All-Tournament honor in softball for Peace College.
